FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Halloween night will be spookier than ever this year when "Phantoms At the Opera," a special show presented by Eastern Illinois University's student chapter of the American Guild of Organists, is held (on Wednesday, Oct. 31) at 9 p.m. in Dvorak Concert Hall in Eastern's Doudna Fine Arts Center.

The show will feature a number of musical acts performed by guild members, including a "Comedy Suite" by PDQ Bach. Also, the silent movies "Phantom of the Opera" and "Flight to the Moon" will be shown with live organ accompaniment.

A costume contest will also be held for those wishing to participate. A prize will be awarded for the most uniquely dressed individual.

Admission to the show is a minimum donation of 25 cents. Profits will go towards various service projects sponsored by the guild throughout the year for the Charleston community and the E.I.U. Music Department.
