FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Thanksgiving is a time to give thanks for everything you have in life. Twenty two needy families in the Charleston area can give thanks to the members of Eastern Illinois University's Kappa Alpha Psi fraternity for donating food baskets.

This is the ninth consecutive year that Kappa Alpha Psi has taken an active interest in the community and organized efforts for baskets of food. The fraternity collected cans of fruit and monetary donations and staged a charity basketball game at Lantz Gym with the proceeds going to the food drive.

"We have taken it upon ourselves to assist the needy families in the Charleston community every year," said Kappa Alpha Psi drive chairman Ellis Swopes. "Our fraternity feels that it is a worthwhile cause and we feel honored in being a part of it. It is our way to become an active part of the community."
