FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Dr. Verna L. Armstrong, a college administrator in Virginia, will become Vice President for Administration and Finance at Eastern Illinois University on March 1.

The appointment of Dr. Armstrong was made by the Illinois Board of Governors of State Colleges and Universities on recommendation of Dr. Stanley G. Rives, EIU President.

Dr. Armstrong is currently Vice President for Business Affairs at Longwood college, Farmville, Va., one of three administrative positions she has held there. She was first administrative assistant to the president and then served during 1981-82 as acting vice president for academic affairs.

At Eastern, Dr. Armstrong will be in charge of a variety of business and financial functions of the University's administration. She will supervise a staff of approximately 230 individuals.

Dr. Armstrong, a toxicologist, holds three degrees from the University of Cincinnati. She received in 1972 the doctor of philosophy degree in toxicology, the master of science degree in pharmaceutical science in 1964 and the bachelor of science in pharmacy in 1962.

She was vice president and treasurer, DeVASS's Inc., Cincinnati, from 1978 to 1981. She was responsible for the firm's fiscal, personnel, tax and legal affairs.

She served on the Cincinnati faculty in pharmacology and toxicology from 1971 to 1981.
