FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University's lady Panthers basketball team, fresh from two conference road victories, returns home to host two more Gateway Collegiate Conference opponents this weekend.

The lady Panthers meet Northern Iowa on Thursday (Jan. 12) and Drake on Saturday (Jan. 14). Tip-off for both is at 7:30 in Lantz Gym.

EIU, now 7-4, has won six straight topped by Gateway victories at Indiana State, 70-63, and Illinois State, 61-60, last week.

Northern Iowa is 1-10 and 0-2 in the league having lost to Wichita State and Southwest Missouri at home. Drake is 8-4 and 2-0 in the league having beaten the same opponents UNI lost to last week.

Drake downed Southwest Missouri 116-83 as 6-3 center Lorri Bauman set an NCAA record scoring 58 points.

"We've worked hard on our man-to-man defense and it's paying off, plus we're getting balanced scoring so it's difficult to key on any one person," said coach Barbara Hilke, accounting for the win streak.

Toni Collins (Lincoln-Jamaica-Sidell) is the scoring and rebounding leader with 14.0 and 6.5 averages, respectively. Collins also leads in assists with 42, in free throw percentage at 71.7% and is second in field goal shooting at 58.3%.

Guard Lori Conine (Paris-Kansas), inserted back into the starting lineup, is averaging 11.4 points and has 34 steals.

The other guard, Melanie Hatfield (Lawrenceburg, IN), played very well in the first two league games scoring 32 points, 20 at Indiana State and 12 at Illinois State, with nine rebounds and eight assists total. She's averaging an even eight points.

Also in double figures are the other two starters, forward Chris Aldridge (Taylorville) and center Sue Hynd (Ottawa), each just over ten points.
