FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EIU SORORITY CONTINUES DRIVE FOR WILL SCHOLARSHIP FUNDS

CHARLESTON -- Those still wishing to contribute to the Andrea Will scholarship fund will get their chance Tuesday, March 3, when Eastern Illinois University's Sigma Kappa sorority sponsors "Change Your Life Day."

Sorority President Kelly Wieczorek said change bins will be distributed at various businesses within Charleston, in all the Greek houses and in the Martin Luther King Jr. University Union walkway. In addition, Sigma Kappa members will walk around campus collecting money for the fund.

Will, an 18-year-old freshman from Batavia, died Feb. 3.

Those wishing to make donations may also send them in care of the Sigma Kappa Foundation, 8733 Founders Road, Indianapolis, Ind. 46268. All checks should be earmarked for the Andrea Will Scholarship.
