FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University's basketball game with Kentucky Wesleyan on Monday, Feb. 16 has been designated 'Charleston High School Night'.

All Charleston High School students will be admitted free to the game upon presentation of a school identification card.

This is one of three special nights EIU's Athletic Department has announced for the remainder of the 1980-81 basketball season.

Also scheduled is the McDonald's/WELH 'Shoot-out' at Saturday's (Feb. 7) Wright State game, and All-American recognition for Panther athletes next Wednesday (Feb. 11) at the Central Missouri contest.

The Shoot-Out will be open to the public at halftime. Anyone sinking a free throw will receive a 'Big Mac' certificate.

At halftime of the CMS game, all Panthers athletes who earned All-American awards within the past season will officially be recognized.
