FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EASTERN SHARES "SUPERCOMPUTER"

CHARLESTON, IL--Thanks to a grant from The Supercomputer Center in Champaign, Eastern Illinois University faculty have access to the University of Illinois' Supercomputer.

The Supercomputer Center in Champaign has made a "fairly generous" grant of 40 hours to Eastern, said Dr. Judy Halchin, a mathematics assistant professor and chair of the Supercomputer Block Grant Committee, which supervises the distribution of the allotted time to interested faculty members.

"The Supercomputer, a Cray X-MP/48, is extremely fast and useful for applications which are too fast for normal computers," Halchin said.
