EIU PRESIDENT RECEIVES AWARD FROM WRITING GROUP

CHARLESTON, IL.--Dr. Stanley Rives, President of Eastern Illinois University has received a special award from the Illinois Association of Personalized Learning Programs.

The presentation was made at the annual meeting of the organization at Allerton Park near Monticello Wednesday, Oct. 7. The honor is given each year to an administrator who has offered outstanding support to personalized learning programs in Illinois colleges and universities.

Dr. Rives has been active during the past few years in the establishment of EIU's Writing Center and Math Diagnostic Center and in the coordination of all EIU learning centers.
