FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

WINDOWS 95 SEMINARS TO BE HELD AT EIU

CHARLESTON -- The Business and Technology Institute at Eastern Illinois University will offer two demonstrations of Windows 95 on Sept. 28 and again on Oct. 19. Each session will meet from 7 to 9 p.m. in Lumpkin Hall.

Microsoft's new Windows 95 is a major new operating system with many outstanding dimensions. Switching to Windows 95 depends on hardware, software, expectations and computing needs.

The demonstration will give participants information to help them decide if Windows 95 is for them. Participants will see many of the 35 new features, differences from other operating systems and upgrade requirements.

Early registration is recommended. The registration fee of $20 should be sent to the Business and Technology Institute, Lumpkin Hall 311, Eastern Illinois University, Charleston, IL 61920. Please make checks out to EIU.

For more information, call the Business and Technology Institute at 217/581-2913.
