FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EIU SCHEDULES COURSE ON DIVORCE RECOVERY

CHARLESTON, IL--"Divorce Recovery: Planning for the Future" is the title of an Eastern Illinois University two-night non-credit short workshop scheduled for Monday nights, Nov. 2 and Nov. 9.

Instructor for the course will be Dr. Kaye Woodward of the EIU School of Home Economics. "This is designed to be a very practical course," explained Dr. Woodward. "We will discuss such topics as financial planning for the single person, career patterns and plans, strategies for planning and attaining financial independence, and examination of possible future problems." Dr. Woodward added that the course would be helpful not only to those who have gone through divorces but also those who have lost spouses through death.
