

3-12-1984

03/12/1984 - Weekly Preview Review

University Marketing and Communications

Follow this and additional works at: http://thekeep.eiu.edu/press_releases_1984

Recommended Citation

University Marketing and Communications, "03/12/1984 - Weekly Preview Review" (1984). 1984. 461.
http://thekeep.eiu.edu/press_releases_1984/461

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Press Releases at The Keep. It has been accepted for inclusion in 1984 by an authorized administrator of The Keep. For more information, please contact tabruns@eiu.edu.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL
CONTINUED: SUSAN HYND (Ottawa-Township), a sophomore center, kept her season field goal percentage well above .500 by hitting five of six shots in her final two games this season.

PAT HAMILTON (Decatur-Eisenhower), a freshman guard, came off the bench to score six points last week.

JODI CORSON (Baggs, WY), a senior guard, capped a four-year career at Eastern with six points against Indiana State by converting three of six shots from the field. She also dished off four assists last week to raise her career total to 214 and move into a tie for fourth on the career assists list.

MEN'S TRACK: CLAUDE MAGEE (Clermont, FL), junior sprinter, reached the semifinals of the 60-yard dash at the NCAA National Indoor Championship Saturday. Magee advanced through the prelims by running a 6.28 FAT, but was eliminated when he placed sixth in his semi heat in 6.22. Only four runners in each semifinal advanced to the finals, and Magee would have needed a 6.18 to get into the final race. Ironically, his 6.22 would have been good enough for sixth in the finals. "I felt Claude represented Eastern well," said coach Neil Moore. "He did not run below par, he ran up to his potential, it simply wasn't good enough on that day . . . just reaching the NCAA meet was quite an accomplishment. The hardest thing to do is to get out of the prelims and semis. Everyone is good, everyone has met the qualifying standard so it's simply who has a good race on that particular day."

MEN'S TENNIS: The Panthers opened the season with two victories, 6-3 over Western Illinois and 9-0 over Missouri-St. Louis. EIU's next match is hosting Carleton College at 3:00 Friday, and Bradley Saturday at 9:00 a.m.

ROB HOPKINS (Mokena-LincolnWay), senior, won both matches at No. 2 singles in straight sets and then teamed with Jay Johnson to defeat Missouri-St. Louis at No. 1 doubles, and teamed with Eric Laffey to down Western Illinois at No. 2 doubles.

SCOTT FJELSTAD (Peoria Heights-Bergan), junior, won both matches at No. 3 singles, took a doubles win with Jay Johnson at No. 1 against Western Illinois and teamed with John Suter for a doubles victory over Missouri-St. Louis at No. 2.

DAN PATRICK (Moline-Blackhawk CC), a senior, won two matches at No. 6 singles and then teamed with John Suter to win a No. 3 doubles match over Western Illinois.