FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL.--Seniors Sandy Gregory of Dundee and Scott McAdams of Cuba are co-winners of the William G. Riordan Award from Eastern Illinois University's Department of Recreation and Leisure Studies.

The award is presented annually to seniors who display outstanding leadership and achievement in the recreation and leisure studies curriculum.

The award honors Bill Riordan who was the developer of the EIU recreation administration curriculum and also served a long term as intramural director.

"Both Sandy and Scott are interested in careers in commercial recreation and have been excellent students and outstanding leaders while at EIU," said Ewen Bryden, department chair.

These two were honored recently at the department's spring awards banquet.
