FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University's football staff, in conjunction with its last spring Blue-White football game, will conduct a clinic at Effingham High School Saturday (May 8).

The clinic will begin at 9 a.m. and continue throughout the day culminating with the intrasquad game at 7 p.m.

"Every member of our staff will be involved with the clinic discussing his segment and the type of football we emphasize here at Eastern," said head coach Darrell Mudra.

Anyone interested in attending should contact Effingham Head Football Coach Drew Potthoff, according to Mudra.

The spring game will pit the No. 1 offense against the No. 1 defense. Each unit has won a game in the spring mini-series.

Mudra said that Carl Koerner, an Effingham businessman and member of EIU's Panther Club Board of Directors, and Effingham Athletic Director Jack Klosterman will be Honorary Coaches.
