COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

For those involved in teaching adults in the work place, church, etc., a course, "Adults Teaching Adults," will be offered.

"Planning for Future Retirement" will help people assess their current assets and cash flow to determine what their need will be for the future.

There will also be a "Meditation" course which will introduce the ancient Eastern tradition, both in theory and in practice.

"Quick Tailoring Techniques" will provide participants with an opportunity to construct a wool suit or coat. Also offered is "Adult Aquatic Range of Motion," for individuals with a desire to participate in a water movement class.

For class dates and registration information, call the Adult and Continuing Education office at (217) 581-5114 and ask for Dianna.
