FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SROUFE SELECTED TO ATTEND C-SPAN SEMINAR

CHARLESTON, IL--P. Gordon Sroufe, assistant professor of speech communication at Eastern Illinois University, has been selected to attend Cable-Satellite Public Affairs Network's 1992 Seminar for Professors June 8-9 in Washington, D.C.

Sroufe was one of 35 college and university professors selected through a competitive application. All 3,500 college-faculty members of "C-SPAN in the Classroom," the cable television network's free national membership organization for educators, were invited to apply.

A member of the Eastern faculty since 1991, Sroufe received his Master of Science degree from Indiana State University.

Professors of political science, journalism, speech, communications, and public policy will be represented at the two-day seminar, focusing on ways to use C-SPAN's public affairs programming in the college classroom and in research.
