FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

STUDENTS RECEIVE BUSINESS AWARDS

CHARLESTON, IL--Three area students are the recipients of business awards from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business. They include Connie Helton, daughter of Victor and Doris Helton of Lisle; Adam Silbernagel, son of Raymond and Barbara Silbernagel of Naperville; and Aislinn Wiley, daughter of Paul and Charlotte Wiley, also of Naperville.

Helton has been given the American Marketing Association Achievement Award which is presented annually to a student with academic excellence and service to the university through participation in the professional organizations within the Lumpkin College of Business.

Helton, a 1989 graduate of Naperville Central High School, is a senior majoring in marketing at Eastern.

Silbernagel and Wiley have both received the Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Simmons Memorial Award, a cash stipend given annually to junior business majors on the basis of character, scholastic achievement and interest in the field of business. The recipients are selected by a faculty committee of the Lumpkin College of Business.
