FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University's Scott Fjelstad (Peoria Bergan) teamed with Bruce Perrin to win the No. 3 doubles recently at the Mid-Continent Conference Tennis Championship.

The Panthers were second in the MCC, their highest finish ever, behind Southwest Missouri State. EIU had a 12-8 overall record.

Fjelstad, just a freshman, was third at No. 5 singles but he and Perrin swept all three doubles matches for the title.

During the regular season he was 8-12 in singles play and 7-7 with Perrin in doubles.

"Scott played better in doubles than in singles all year and that was evident with the conference doubles win," said Coach Carl Sexton.

"He made considerable progress for a freshman but we don't graduate anyone so it will be difficult to move up much."
