NOTE TO THE EDITOR(The Daily Record): Tabora Raggio, daughter of Don and Mary Raggio of Lawrenceville, is the recipient of the following awards; The Financial Management Association Outstanding Senior Award, The Boatmen's National Bank Finance Achievement Award, and The Alexander Briggs Memorial Award.

The Financial Management Association Outstanding Senior Award is an honorary cash award given to a senior in finance demonstrating high academic achievement and outstanding service to the association. The Boatmen's National Bank Finance Achievement Award is made annually to an outstanding finance student selected on the basis of scholarship and promise of a successful career in finance. The Alexander Briggs Memorial Award is a cash stipend made annually to one or more business majors who are selected by the members of the faculty on the basis of outstanding personal character and interest in the field of business and business education. This award was established by Miss Margaret Briggs in memory of her father, Alexander Briggs, the contractor who completed "Old Main", Eastern's administration building.

Raggo is a 1988 graduate of Lawrenceville High School.
