FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

WARBURTON RECEIVES BUSINESS AWARD

Mary Warburton, daughter of Frank and Betty Warburton of Homewood, is the recipient of an Excellence in Administrative Information Systems Association Award from Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business.

The award is presented annually to a student who has played an active role in the organization and has the potential for excellence in a career in administrative information systems.

Warburton, a 1989 graduate of Homewood-Flossmoor High School, is a senior at Eastern majoring in administrative information systems and computer management.

Eastern, located in Charleston, places its highest priority on teaching in its classrooms and laboratories, supplemented by strong academic support services.
