FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ROSSINI HELPING OTHERS

CHARLESTON, IL--John Rossini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rossini of Palatine, is one of two student representatives from Eastern Illinois University asked to serve on the Eastern Coles County United Way Board.

Rossini was asked to join the United Way Board as a second student representative after selling the most raffle tickets for last year's fund raiser which raised $800 for United Way.

"United Way is a worth-while organization. I saw it needed help to raise money by way of Eastern students so I got involved," said Rossini.

ROSSINI HELPING OTHERS

As a member of the United Way Board, Rossini is working on a "Student Challenge Contest" at Eastern. Any group of students and organizations on campus are challenged to raise money for United Way.

Each organization will pay a $10 entry fee to enter the challenge. This money will be put in a winners pool and the organization who raises the most money wins the pool. The money the organization raises is donated to United Way.

Rossini is working with Rita Nielsen, student representative of United Way, to reach their goal of $1,000.

Rossini is also fund-raising chairman for Alpha Phi Omega, a service fraternity. The senior Speech Communications major has run on Eastern's Track team for four years. He graduated from Palatine High School in 1985.
