FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL.--Eastern Illinois University industrial technology awards were presented to three students in the name of Charleston residents.

Charles Barnes of Fithian (Oakwood) is the recipient of the Walter A. Klehm Industrial Technology Award. It is established in honor of Dr. Klehm, EIU's first dean of the School of Industrial Arts and Technology, and presented annually to a technology education major who demonstrates promise as a teacher of industrial arts.

James Merkle of Danforth (Gilman) received the Lucille Klehm Technology Education Award, which also honors a tech ed major. Mrs. Klehm is the wife of Walter Klehm.

Danny Carlson of Mason (Dieterich) is the recipient of the 1986 Charles Elliott Technology Education Award. Elliott, a member of Eastern's faculty from 1945-73, annually presents the award to a junior, senior or graduate tech ed student entering the teaching profession.
