FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

VERNON GUFFEE RECOGNIZED

CHARLESTON, IL--Vernon A. McGuffee, son of Vernon and Florence McGuffee of Potomac, was first runner-up in the World History Division research paper contest at the annual Phi Alpha Theta Lower Illinois Regional History Conference held recently at Eastern Illinois University.

Phi Alpha Theta is an international history honor society.

Students from Eastern and seven other colleges and universities presented 23 papers at the conference. McGuffee's paper was titled "'Not Before the Conquest!': Leveller Ideology in the Localities, 1648-9."

McGuffee is also the recipient of the Lavern M. Hamand Memorial Scholarship Fund Graduate Writing Award.

A 1987 graduate of Potomac High School, McGuffee is a graduate student majoring in history at Eastern.

Eastern, located in Charleston, places its highest priority on teaching in its classrooms and laboratories, supplemented by strong academic support services.
