FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Jan Wamser, an all-conference infielder from Libertyville, has signed a scholarship to play softball at Eastern Illinois University, head coach Deanna D'Abbraccio announced.

Chosen to the North Suburban All-Conference First Team, Wamser batted .330 as a senior with a .302 career average. During three seasons of varsity competition she pitched, caught and played second base, third base and shortstop.

D'Abbraccio plans to use her primarily as a shortstop and catcher on the collegiate level. "Jan is very quick at short with good range and an accurate throw," D'Abbraccio said. "She's an excellent bunter with good speed, and competed in a strong high school program."

Altogether she earned five varsity letters at Libertyville High School in softball, volleyball and basketball, and received the Hardest Worker Award for the '82 softball season.

Wamser also was team captain and an all-league choice for the 1981 volleyball team.

She is the daughter of Carol and Allen Wamser of Libertyville.
