FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

TECHNOLOGY AWARDS

CHARLESTON, IL--Six industrial technology students at Eastern Illinois University are the recipients of awards from the University's School of Technology.

Eastern is located an hour south of Champaign-Urbana in Charleston, a city of 20,000 noted for its friendliness. A residential university, Eastern's highest priority is excellence in teaching. The university's 10,000 students live on an attractive, safe 320-acre campus with a full range of extracurricular activities. Graduation rates are well above state and national averages.

NOTE TO THE EDITOR (Times-Courier): Andrew W. Houk, son of Mike and Brenda Houk of Oakland, has received the Lucille M. Klehm Technology Education Award from the School of Technology at Eastern Illinois University. The award is presented annually to a deserving student in the School of Technology in honor of Lucille Klehm, wife of Walter Klehm, faculty emeritus and past dean of the School of Technology. Houk is a graduate of Oakland High School and a junior at Eastern majoring in technology education. Besides his academic achievements, he is a member of the Dean's Student Advisory Council.
