FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

LORD SCHOLARS NAMED

CHARLESTON, IL--Six Eastern Illinois University students were presented 1992 Livingston C. Lord Scholarships at the University's recent spring commencement ceremony.

The Lord Scholarship is the most prestigious award a student can receive at the University.

It is awarded annually at commencement to six junior or senior students, one from each undergraduate college within the University who have been nominated by a department chairperson.

In addition to a significant monetary award the recipients each received a gold medallion and certificate.
