FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL (Feb. 17, 1987)--If Eastern Illinois University's basketball Lady Panthers hope to continue their march toward the Gateway Conference post-season tournament, they will have to win two league games on the road this week.

Tied with Bradley for fourth place in the conference standings at 8-6 and 12-11 overall, Eastern Illinois faces the Braves at 7:30 p.m. Thursday (Feb. 19). The Lady Panthers will then play at Western Illinois on Saturday (Feb. 21) at 5:15 p.m. The top four teams in the conference qualify for the post-season tournament to be held March 4-6.

EIU also will meet Butler on Monday (Feb. 23) at 5:15 p.m. in a non-conference game at Indianapolis, IN.

"I think we know what's on the line for us," said Eastern coach Barbara Hilke, who collected her 150th victory at the school last week in her eighth season. "Our people are extremely aware of the conference race. At this stage, we can't afford to drop a game.

"We know the Bradley game will be a physical contest, and we respect Bradley. They have some great shooters, and they hit the boards extremely well. This conference race is too tight to make win-loss assumptions. You've got to be ready to play every game. The Western game is as important as the Bradley contest to us."

The Lady Panthers posted two conference victories last week, beating Illinois State 67-63 and Indiana State 73-64 as senior guard PAT HAMILTON (Decatur-Eisenhower) had 48 points in two games. Sophomore forward LISA TYLER (Aurora, IN-South Dearborn) contributed 34 points, 18 rebounds and six assists for the Lady Panthers.
