FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University's School of Fine Arts will offer an interdisciplinary workshop in art and music June 29-July 16. Three semester hours of undergraduate or graduate credit may be gained.

"Artist and Composer: A Comparative Study" will feature Raphael and Mozart in an artist's approach to classicism. Purpose of the art and music course is to compare and contrast the work procedures of the two men and each man's approach to the process of creativity.

Instructors will be Dr. Catherine Smith of the Music Department and Dr. Janina Darling of the Art Department. They have led two art-music tours to Europe.

Complete information and registration materials may be obtained from Dr. Charles Switzer, Summer School Director, Eastern Illinois University, Charleston.
