FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BALDNER JOINS EASTERN

CHARLESTON, IL--Kent Baldner, son of Earl Baldner of Wofford Heights, Calif., has joined the faculty of Eastern Illinois University in Charleston as an assistant professor of Philosophy.

Eastern Illinois University places priority on teaching excellence for a high quality student body in a residential setting. Approximately 10,000 on-campus students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. Eastern offers faculty a wide range of research and public service activities. The University is located in east central Illinois and combines the benefits of a community of 20,000 with access to several large cities, including Chicago, St. Louis and Indianapolis.

BALDNER JOINS EASTERN

Before coming to Eastern, Baldner was a visiting assistant professor at Central Michigan University, University of Kentucky and University of Arkansas at Fayetteville. Prior to that, he was a teaching assistant and associate professor at the University of California, Irvine, for five years, where he received his doctorate in 1985.

Baldner earned his bachelor's degree from California State University, Northridge, in 1979 and graduated from Alemany High School in 1974.
