FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL (April 14, 1987)--Fourteen Eastern Illinois University student-athletes have been selected as recipients of the Presidents' All-Academic Award for 1987, the Gateway Conference has announced.

To be named a Presidents' All-Academic winner, a student-athlete must present a cumulative grade point average of 3.80 or better on the 4.0 scale. Honorable mention is awarded to student-athletes who achieve a grade point average between 3.50 and 3.79. The grade point average criteria for the Gateway's "all-academic team" is the highest of any conference in the country.

"We're always pleased that we can place several athletes on the all-academic team," said Associate Athletic Director Joan Schmidt. "We feel that we have good representatives who are indicative of the type of athletes that we recruit at Eastern Illinois."

A record total of 130 student-athletes from all 10 schools were selected. The sport of track and field, which included cross country, had the most recipients with 29 honorees. Football was second with 25 recipients and volleyball third with 20.
