FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Terese Papa of Melrose Park has recently been elected executive vice-president of the student body at Eastern Illinois University.

The 1984 graduate of Trinity High School will begin her duties on the first day of summer school, June 17. Papa's responsibilities will include supervising the seven student/faculty boards at the University.

The political science major is the daughter of James and Josephine Papa. Terese was elected in a general student wide election in the spring.

Papa who will be a junior next year, is also a member of the Delta Zeta social sorority and the Panhellenic Council.
