FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Donald Kojich, former media relations/publications coordinator for the Chicago Blitz (USFL), has been named assistant sports information director at Eastern Illinois University.

Kojich, 24, worked for the Blitz the past two years. His main responsibilities will be handling publicity for the Panthers seven women's sports and also handling administrative assignments in the Information and Publications Office.

In December, 1982 he earned his bachelor's degree in telecommunications from Purdue University. Kojich worked in the Purdue Sports Information Office as student assistant for three years while also working part-time for the Lafayette Journal & Courier.

He is a 1978 graduate of Culver Military Academy, and also worked as a publications assistant for the Culver Office of Publications and Public Information in the summer of 1982.
