FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SELECTED STUDENT MARSHAL AT COMMENCEMENT

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University student Robin Hess, wife of F. Bennett Hess of Urbana, represented the School of Adult and Continuing Education as a student marshal at Eastern's recent spring commencement ceremony. She is also the recipient of the Livingston C. Lord Scholarship which is presented to students who show the most promise of outstanding success in their chosen fields.

Marshals are chosen by the deans of the respective colleges and the director of the Honors Programs. They serve as the official ushers for the various college occasions, particularly for the commencement exercises. They wear white academic costumes and carry batons decorated in the university's colors, blue and gray.

A 1977 graduate of Unity Senior High School, Hess was a senior enrolled in the Board of Governors Bachelor of Arts degree program at Eastern during the spring semester. She has one daughter, Jessica.
