FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Threes are across the board. Eastern Illinois University's volleyball team enters the third week of the season with a 3-3 record and the Lady Panthers will be on the road for the third consecutive weekend at the Southern Illinois Tournament (Sept. 14-15).

Besides EIU and the host Salukies, the other two teams entered in the tournament are Northern Illinois and Mississippi. The Lady Panthers will be meeting Old Miss for the second straight weekend as they were defeated by the Lady Rebels 15-10, 15-13, 15-9 in the Memphis State Tournament last Saturday. EIU also entertains St. Louis University Wednesday night in a mid-week battle.

"I think playing Mississippi first on Friday will really psyche up our team," states Ralston. "They may be looking past us since they beat us at Memphis. I think we have a real good shot at beating them."

During the early-part of the season, EIU has been paced by an unknown sophomore that has sparked the team repeatedly during vital points. Maura LeFevour (Oak Park/Oak Park-River Forest) has established herself as a force to be reckoned with in 1984. She leads the club in kills (62), attack percentage (.404), block assists (15) and is tied for the lead in block solos (3).

"Maura has improved her all-around game a great deal since last year," says Ralston. "She has an un-orthodox hitting style that enables her to get by the blockers."

Senior co-captain Gretchen Braker (Matteson/Rich Central) leads the team in assists with 113 (5.7/gm) while junior April Deer (Morton/East Peoria) is second on the squad in assists with 76. ✓ Senior co-captain Donna Uhler (Glen Ellyn/Benet Academy) is pacing the team in total attempts (154) and is second in kills (56).
