FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

BURTON HONORED

CHARLESTON, IL--Lucille Burton of Toledo has been selected Employee of the Year at Eastern Illinois University.

The award, given to one of the 12 "Employee of the Month" winners, is part of Eastern's Employee Recognition Program.

Each finalist is a full-time Civil Service employee who has been recognized for job performance.

As a Data Entry Operator III in the Payroll Department, Burton is responsible for submitting and controlling computer programs and maintaining centralized computer master files for all payrolls.

Upon receiving the award, Burton said she was "very surprised and honored."

BURTON

Elmer Voudrie, Eastern's Payroll Supervisor who has worked with her for the past ten years, said, "She is very professional and accurate, and in this office we stress accuracy."

Burton was originally employed at Eastern from 1956 to 1964, and returned in 1974.

Burton and her husband, Marion, a retired Central Illinois Public Service employee, have a daughter, Sheila, a college student living in Mattoon.
