FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL (May 11, 1987)--Three members of Eastern Illinois University's softball Lady Panthers have been named All-Gateway Conference, it was announced today.

Junior outfielder ANGEL LENDVAY (MUNDELEIN) has been chosen by league coaches for a third straight time after being second among her teammates with a .268 batting average, 33 hits (in 123 at-bats) and 13 runs batted in. Lendvay scored eight runs and had a fielding percentage of .973 after playing in 41 games. Lendvay upped her school-record total in triples to 17 this season.

Junior pitcher ZAM MOGILL (STREATOR) has been named all-conference a second consecutive year after leading Eastern with a 19-13 record and a 0.86 earned run average. Mogill, a right-hander, struck out 170 and walked 46 in 235 1/3 innings. She had 11 shutouts and 30 complete games in 32 starts. Mogill increased her school-record totals in strikeouts to 525 and shutouts to 36 this season.

Junior second baseman SARA KARCHER (WAYNE CITY) has been chosen for the first time after pacing the Lady Panthers in every offensive category. Karcher batted .324, with 46 hits in 142 at-bats. She scored 25 runs and had 14 runs batted in along with 13 doubles, five triples and 13 bases on balls. She had a fielding percentage of .971 after playing in all 45 games.

Eastern captured its second straight regular-season conference crown this year and tied for fifth in the Gateway Conference Tournament last weekend at Normal, IL. The Lady Panthers were 25-19-1 overall.
