NEXT ACTION: The Eastern Illinois University women's field hockey team hosts Western Illinois University, Thursday at 3:30 p.m., on the EIU field located near Lantz Gym. The Panthers compete in the Southern Illinois University Triangular, Saturday along with Principia at Carbondale. EIU is 3-1 for the season.

PANTHERS 2ND AT EDWARDSVILLE -- The EIU Panthers placed second in the Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville Invitational, last weekend at Edwardsville, IL. Southwest Missouri State tripped the Panthers, 2-0, last Saturday afternoon in the championship game.

OTHER EIU SCORES AT SIU-EDWARDSVILLE -- Eastern Illinois University began play in the Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville Invitational, last Friday against University of Northern Iowa. The Panthers shutout the Panthers, 6-0, as Deb Seybert (junior forward of Edwardsville) scored five (5) goals. EIU outshot UNI, 24-1. EIU then nipped the host team Southern Illinois University-Edwardsville, 2-1, as Peggy Moore (senior Mt. Zion) scored with just three (3:00) minutes remaining in the 60 minute contest. (NOTE: All games played last weekend were 60 minutes instead of the 70 minute regular season contests.). Saturday EIU defeated Southwest Missouri State's junior varsity, 4-1 in penalty strokes. The game was tied, 1-1, after regulation; Panther goals by Kathy Sherer (junior of Rockford/Rockford West), Gail Neibur (freshman of Edwardsville) and Gigi MacIntosh (senior of Macon/Mt. Zion H.S.) in penalty strokes won the game.

EIU LEADING GOAL SCORES AFTER 4 GAMES -- Deb Seybert had an excellent four game performance at Edwardsville, IL., last weekend as she scored seven (7) goals. Neibur (Gail) tallied twice; MacIntosh (Gigi), Moore (Peggy) and Sherer (Kathy) scored one goal each.

WATERBURY 3-1 IN NETS -- Panther goalie Judy Waterbury (sophomore of Hoffman Estates/James B. Conant H.S.) has a 3-1 record for the young season. Her goals against average (G.A.A.) is an impressive 1.0 (four goals in four games). Waterbury has 26 saves in four games and has worked 240 minutes in earning one shutout. (the 6-0 shutout against UNI, Sept. 11)

COACH REICHEL COMMENTS -- EIU first-year head coach Beth Reichel had these comments following the Panthers' second-place finish at SIU-Edwardsville last weekend, "we were pleased with our performance last weekend; particularly with Deb's (Seybert) outstanding effort. She (Deb) was in on every goal against Northern Iowa. We are looking forward to a good game against Western and should do well this weekend at Carbondale."
