FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SALISA JOINS EASTERN

CHARLESTON, IL--Salisa Shook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hortenstine of Gays, has joined the faculty at Eastern Illinois University as a Speech Communications instructor.

Eastern Illinois University places priority on teaching excellence for a high quality student body in a residential setting. Approximately 10,000 on-campus students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. Eastern offers faculty a wide range of research and public service activities. The University is located in east central Illinois and combines the benefits of a community of 20,000 with access to several large cities, including Chicago, St. Louis and Indianapolis.

Before coming to Eastern, Shook was a public speaking instructor at Lake Land College in Mattoon. She received her bachelor's degree from Eastern in 1982.

Shook earned her associate's degree from Lake Land College in 1980 after graduating from Windsor High School in 1978. Shook and her husband, Douglas have three children, Steffen, Cydney and Ciara.
