FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, ILL. (Nov. 14, 1984)--Former Henry (Ill.) High School standout Lori Berger completed her first season performing for the Eastern Illinois women's volleyball team.

Berger finished second on the squad in block solos (38), block assists (81) and service aces (60). She was sixth on the team in kills with 167 while playing middle blocker. Her 232 digs was good enough for fifth place on the team.

"Lori was one of the hardest working players we had on the team," says second-year head coach Betty Ralston. "She had the second-best serve on the team and should contribute many things to the program next season."

The junior physical education major came to Eastern after two years at Illinois Central College where she led ICC to a pair of NJCAA volleyball berths. ICC finished third and fifth nationally while Berger competed for the squad.
