FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

JONES JOINS EASTERN

CHARLESTON, IL--Jeanne Jones, daughter of Fran Ferchow of Altamont, has joined the faculty at Eastern Illinois University as a Speech Communications instructor.

Eastern Illinois University places priority on teaching excellence for a high quality student body in a residential setting. Approximately 10,000 on-campus students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites. Eastern offers faculty a wide range of research and public service activities. The University is located in east central Illinois and combines the benefits of a community of 20,000 with access to several large cities, including Chicago, St. Louis and Indianapolis.

Before coming to Eastern, Jones was a speech and English teacher at Charleston High School for 19 years. Prior to that, she taught at Tuscola Middle School for a year and at Arcola High School for a year.

Jones earned her master's degree in 1972 and her bachelor's degree in 1966 from Eastern. She graduated from Tuscola High School in 1963. Jones and her husband, Alan have four children, Whitney, Allison, Erica and Kolby.
