FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University soccer player Albert Adade, a senior sweeperback from Kumasi, Ghana, has been chosen to compete for the West squad in the Soccer Senior Bowl in Tampa, FL on December 22.

He's the sixth EIU player chosen to compete in this prestigious tournament but the first since Silvano Corazza in 1981.

Adade, who recently was picked the 'player of the year' in the AMCU-8, has been the Panthers No. 1 back for four years during which time Eastern competed in three Division I tournaments.

Adade was an all-mideast choice as a freshman, and earned Most Valuable Player honors during two regular season tournaments as a sophomore.
