FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

COMMITTEE TO REVIEW PRESIDENT'S COUNCIL PLAN

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University's President's Council has decided to postpone implementation of its Articulated Plan until an ad hoc committee has had an opportunity to review its contents.

Eastern President David Jorns said the committee will be selected by the university's Faculty and Staff Senates and Affirmative Action Advisory Committee from their memberships.

The committee's goal will be to insure that the President's Council Articulated Plan is accurate, collegial, appropriate, ethical and completely in compliance with all governing policies, the law and affirmative action guidelines.

The goals and objectives outlined in the President's Council Articulated Plan are designed to complement the University Strategic Plan currently under review by the campus community.

Jorns said all initiatives, including administrative reassignments mentioned in the President's Council Articulated Plan, will be postponed pending the committee's report. "In this regard, the recommendations of this committee will be binding," he said.
