FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

AREA RESIDENTS APPOINTED TO ADVISORY BOARD

CHARLESTON, IL--Four area residents have been appointed to Eastern Illinois University's Lumpkin College of Business Dean's Business Advisory Board.

Alice Shawver of Charleston, realtor emeritus; John Campanelli, vice president and division director at R.R. Donnelley and Sons, Co., Mattoon; and James Schnorf, chief financial officer for Stevens Industries, Inc., Teutopolis, have been appointed to three-year terms on the Dean's Business Advisory Board.

Derald Doehring, a certified public accountant with Doehring and Winders, Mattoon, has been appointed to a one-year term as secretary-treasurer of the Board and will serve on its Executive Committee. He will be responsible for keeping appropriate records of Board activities and will make reports at regular Board meetings.

Mattoon native Rex Cooley, senior vice president and comptroller at USX in Pittsburgh, Pa., has been appointed chairperson-elect and will serve in the absence of the chairperson and assume his office when vacated. He will also serve on the Board's Executive Committee.

The 31 members who currently serve on the Board provide a link between the College and the business community and also offer advice and support to Dean Ted Ivarie on a variety of issues related to the management and offerings of the College.

Four other area residents have retired from the board. They include Charleston residents Eli Sidwell of Eli Sidwell and Associates; Donald Shawver, professor emeritus of the University of Missouri at Columbia; J.W. Oglesby, associate director of Coles Together; and Obed Henderson, general agent for Massachusetts Mutual Life Insurance Co.

They will continue their affiliation with the Board and the College as Dean's Associates. Dean's Associates have all the privileges of regular members except voting.
