FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

HALL JOINS EASTERN

CHARLESTON, IL--Carl Hall, son of Dorothy Ward of Harrisburg, has joined the faculty at Eastern Illinois University as a Psychology instructor.

Eastern Illinois University places priority on teaching excellence for a high quality student body in a residential setting. Approximately 10,000 on-campus students are enrolled in undergraduate and graduate programs. Non-traditional and part-time students are enrolled in programs at both on- and off-campus sites.

Eastern offers faculty a wide range of research and public service activities. The University is located in east central Illinois and combines the benefits of a community of 20,000 with access to several large cities, including Chicago, St. Louis and Indianapolis.

Before coming to Eastern, Hall was an instructor at Illinois State University where he received his master's degree in 1972. He earned his bachelor's degree in 1968 from Eastern after graduating from Galatia High School in 1964. Hall and his wife, Kathryn have one child, Dana.
