FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

EASTERN FACULTY RECEIVE TENURE

CHARLESTON, IL--Twenty Eastern Illinois University faculty have been granted tenure.

They include Donald Armel, technology; Rachelle Bergmann, physics; Tom Boldrey, technology; Susan Brown-Sandberg, elementary and junior high school education; Scott Crawford, physical education; Marietta Deming, health studies; Jean Dilworth, home economics; Karen Ketler, computer and operations management; Stephen Larabee, accountancy and finance; and Terry Lundgren, business education and administrative information systems.

Others receiving tenure are Gail Mason, speech communication; Andrew Methven, botany; Bryan Miller, zoology; Ali Mosh-tagh, economics; Ollie Mae Ray, health studies; Anita Shelton, history; Patricia Stein, home economics; Mary Ellen Varble, elementary and junior high school education; Richard Wandling, political science; and Charles Wootton, accountancy and finance.

Tenure is a status awarded by the Board of Governors Universities upon the positive recommendation of the university president following an extensive evaluation process. It is a relationship of continuing commitment between the university and the employee, benefiting both.
