CHARLESTON, IL--Bradley Overby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Overby of Mt. Olive, has received the Cooley-Marathon Scholarship from Eastern Illinois University.

Overby, a 1989 graduate from Mt. Olive High School, is a freshman at Eastern majoring in Marketing.

As the freshman recipient of the Cooley-Marathon Scholarship, Overby is eligible to receive a $500 scholarship renewable each of his four years at Eastern, as long as he continues to be enrolled in the business field and maintains satisfactory academic standing.

The Cooley-Marathon Scholarship Fund was established as a joint venture by Rex D. and Nancy A. Cooley of Findlay, Ohio, in cooperation with the Marathon Oil Foundation to provide financial assistance to students who declare pre-business as a major.
