For Immediate Release:

EIU HIRES PALESTINE WOMAN AS CDS CLINICAL SUPERVISOR

CHARLESTON -- Shari Eckert of Palestine recently accepted a job at Eastern Illinois University as clinical supervisor for the communication disorders and sciences department.

She will supervise undergraduate and graduate students who are in a clinical practicum.

Eckert received her associate degree in secondary education from Vincennes University. She received both a bachelor's degree in English and a master's degree in speech pathology from Eastern.

Previously, Eckert served as a speech/language pathologist for both the Robinson and Jasper County school districts. She is a member of the East Central Illinois Speech Language Hearing Association.

She and her husband, James, are the parents of three children -- Susannah, Joseph and Samuel. Eckert is the daughter of Leonard and Jeannette Knoblett, also of Palestine.
