FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Bob Beine (Downers Grove/North), sophomore cross country runner at Eastern Illinois University, was consistently among EIU's top seven this past fall.

Beine's accomplishments in 1981 included a 15th place finish at the Mid-Continent Conference meet and a 27th place showing at the Purdue Invitational.

He concluded the season with a 98th place finish at the national meet, which was fourth among Panther runners.

Eastern coach Tom Woodall said, "Bob was a much improved runner . . . could be voted as most improved runner . . . very definite letter winner."

EIU was 4-1 in dual meets and won the MCC title for the third time.
