FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL.--Nine Eastern Illinois University students have been initiated into Epsilon Pi Tau, the honorary professional fraternity for educators in Technology.

The group is comprised of technology education majors who have at least an overall grade point average of 2.75 with a 3.0 minimum within the major.

The nine are: Donnell Hall, senior from Chicago Hirsch; Richard DeVore, senior from Bethany; Todd Derham, senior from Charleston (Knoxville HS); Randy Hines, senior from Grand Ridge (Ottawa); Doug Tankersley, senior from Gibson City; Steve Jagosh, senior from Charleston; Danny Carlson, junior from Mason (Dieterich); Rick Terkovich, senior from Burbank (Reavis); and Scott Jackson, senior from Glen Ellyn (Glenbard South).

Derham was elected club president for 1986-87 with Tankersley and Jagosh, vice president and secretary-treasurer, respectively.
