FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

SHEEHAN SELECTED FOR MODEL U.N.

CHARLESTON, IL--Jerry Sheehan, a junior political science major at Eastern Illinois University, will participate in the first Soviet Model United Nations meeting Jan. 22-29 in Moscow.

Sheehan is a part of the midwest delegation that will represent France. Every delegation will represent a different country. There are 13 students in Sheehan's delegation and one faculty adviser.

Sheehan will be the first Eastern student to travel to a Model United Nations meeting outside of the United States.

Sheehan is looking forward to the trip. "I think it is a tremendous opportunity for academic reasons and will also be a lot of fun," he said.

SHEEHAN

The Model United Nations will allow students the opportunity to discuss real and hypothetical situations following the real United Nations format.

There are three Soviet universities that will participate; the University of Vladivostok will represent China, the Moscow Institute of International Relations will represent the United Kingdom and Moscow State University will represent the United States.
