FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

CHARLESTON, IL--Eastern Illinois University will be among national and international schools at a forum in Chicago on Nov. 8-9.

Purpose of the forum is to disseminate information about Master of Business Administration (MBA) degrees. A spokesman for the sponsor, the Graduate Management Admission Council, said persons attending will be able "to determine whether the MBA degree will be useful, and if so, to identify the schools that will best fit their needs."

Dr. Foster Rinefort, Coordinator of Graduate Business Studies, will represent Eastern. He said admissions procedures, curricula, and career planning will be discussed with the expected 1,200 persons attending.
